Mrs. Ole Roning en spinning wool.

P. M. Finkenbinder with trophy winning Chester White Swine.

This Espe Loader, built by A. C. Espe Crookston Manufacturing Company, was one of the first mechanized machines that modernized sugar beet harvest in the area. The tractor used about two gallons of 10.2¢ fuel per hour, loading seven tons of beets in six minutes. Picture taken 1940.

Thomas Logan and Sons. Harvest 1905.

House of J. Hawkins south end of Ash St. Flood 1900.