The first early bottling process of the present Crookston Coca Cola Bottling Company 1916: L. to R.: Gilbert Bang, center front Palmer Hanson and Ernie Schuler.

Ole Gunstenson in his drug store in Fisher, Minnesota in 1910.

United States Land Office in Crookston, Minnesota in 1900s. Identified: Judge Montague, Frank Montague and John Morrisey.

Potato picking time at the W. S. Brekke farm at Nielsville, Minnesota in 1918.

Karl Jevning of Climax, Minnesota hauling logs in Vineland township. Arne Larson and his brothers Leonard are pictured with him. Logs were hauled to Wilton, Minnesota and shipped by rail to saw mills.

The main street in Nielsville, Minnesota 1912. Note the mechanized car to the right in the picture.