The Old Polk County Courthouse — built around 1900, demolished 1968. Crookston, Minnesota.

The Christ Episcopal Church built in 1880, in Crookston, Minnesota. It was remodeled in 1920 but the interior remains about the same.

The New Polk County Courthouse built in 1968 and dedicated in June 1969. Crookston, Minnesota

Herman F. Skyberg was a member of the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota (1949-1968). Skyberg Hall on the UMC campus. Crookston was dedicated to his memory on February 6, 1972.

The UMC campus continues to grow. In 1972, the new classroom building, Dowell Hall was dedicated in honor of Austin A. Dowell (extreme left). He was an early superintendent, teacher and researcher at the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston and the Northwest Experiment Station. Malcom Moos (second from left) the University of Minnesota president.

Each year, the college continues to graduate more students who will go into the world for positions in food and fiber industry. The torch, far left, continues to burn and to symbolize the ideal of providing quality education for rural America.